Thanks to my friend
Mrs. Nicole MARIE-LOUISE

Before telling you about her, I would like to invite you to pause for a moment, to consider a concept that is directly related to the text of [Romans 13 verse 7].

This text invites us, among other things, to give praise where it is due. Based on this text, I am going to tell you about my friend Nicole, and to do this, I would like to tell you that she has collaborated on all of my books, including this one, giving shape to my words and magnifying my ideas without altering them.

It is she who gives meaning to my ideas and manages to faithfully transcribe my thoughts by making them come alive.

However, she worked, and still works, knowing that these books will be offered free of charge in a digital format. So the precious help she gives me is not based on self-interest, but rather only out of love of God, and her passion for writing and her desire to support me.

In return for all of this time that she has graciously granted, I ask you to keep her and her family in your prayers and to grant them your blessing, in the mighty name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Master.

Dedication to my brother
Mr. Terry LIONEL

My beloved brother through blood and in Christ, I want you to know that God's Spirit has shown me your destiny in your dreams and in mine. It is wonderful because, you are summoned to become one of God's most powerful servants of this generation, a prophet of the Lord!

For a long time shackles held you back, seeking to confine you like a spiritual caterpillar trapped in its cocoon, represented by chains woven around you by the doctrines of iniquitous men, that your religion had inculcated in you and presented as being the "truth".

But God's Spirit, in Jesus Christ, has enabled you to break free of them to become this Edenic butterfly that is destined to take flight.

Terry, know that I love you infinitely!

May this book assist you in becoming God's servant, accomplished and guided in all things by the Holy Spirit, as our Lord and master Jesus Christ intends.

1 Presentation of the booklets

To introduce this book, I would say that in these pages, there is good news and I am in charge of announcing it to you. Yes! However, just like the coins that have two sides, I also have some not so good news for you, because it will shake all your certainties. What about it?

Rest assured, it is nothing more or less than new biblical knowledge, which I have had access to and which I want to share.

Don't see anything proud in this. You will understand, when you read what follows! To begin, I ask you these questions:

Do you have the ability to see events before they happen and do you work to channel them for good?

Do you have the ability to dominate a demonic person who is inhabited by a legion of demons? Have you, without studying, acquired the ability to speak a new language? Etc.

These questions are meant to demonstrate that the spiritual gifts that the Holy Spirit gives are still accessible today, even if they seem extraordinary! For some, these words could be assimilated to those of an “enlightened person”, cherishing arguities (quibbles).

It is not so! If you read on, you will realize.

However, as I mentioned earlier, this good news comes with a bad news because in order to obtain these gifts, we have to deny many of the bases inculcated by our respective religions.

Let's take the example of the religion I know best, the Seventh-day Adventists.

This book is, Bible in hand, a real tidal wave that comes down on the foundations of your faith, because it is above all intended for the reformation of this religion.

To continue, the sealing of God's people by the Holy Spirit is central to the preaching of all Christian religions, and even the backbone of the Seventh-day Adventist religion.

Yet, although this concept is mastered, for all know that it is the Spirit of God who seals and gives spiritual gifts, the reality of this sealing is not. What are the repercussions of this?

In this century, unfortunately, few people are in the situation of Cornelius and his family [Acts 10], to receive, like the disciples of Christ, the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

At this point, it is necessary to clarify what I am saying.

I am not referring to those among God's people who have mastered several languages, after having studied for this, but to those who receive this gift of the Holy Spirit and speak in new, previously unknown languages [Acts 2 verses 1-18] or by prophesying, as it is written in [Acts 19 verses 1-7].

Nor am I referring to those who claim to have the gift of casting out demons, but who, as described in [Acts 19 verses 13-17], may one day find themselves beaten by one of them and have to flee naked.

One of the realities we live in this century is that the spiritual gifts that the Holy Spirit gives to work powerfully for the Lord are almost non-existent.

I deliberately use the term “almost non-existent” because it is not unlikely that one of you would have received the Holy Spirit in another way and acquired the ability, like Paul, to heal the sick with a simple touch, to prophesy [Acts 19 verses 11-12], [Acts 27 verses 9-44] or to speak a new language, like Peter and the disciples [Acts 2 verses 1-16], etc. Nothing is impossible for God!

If not, I invite all the others who wish to receive spiritual gifts to come with me on this biblical walk which, in my opinion, will be enriching. I'll let you judge by the verses in this book that promise that “the gates of the heavenly locks will be opened and the Spirit of God will come to live in us”.

Of course, there are conditions to be fulfilled for that, we will discover them in all the parts that make up this book.

To continue I would say that often we hope for something that is already at our side for a long time, but we do not manage to embrace it because we are blinded. This is what is happening in this century within Christian religions, which, like the Seventh-day Adventist Church, are waiting with hope for the Holy Spirit to pour out upon their church members like “the latter rain”.

This hope lies in the Lord's promise to his people through the prophet Joel [Joel 2 verses 23], [Joel 3 verses 1-5].

Many of God's children long for this promise, some spend a lifetime hoping to live out this prophecy and end up going down to the grave without having experienced it. Unfortunately, all those who hope in it do so in vain. Why is this so?

*Unfortunately, this reality is manifest in the text of [Acts 2 verses 1-4, 16-18], where we discover the promise of the coming of the Holy Spirit, like the latter rain, made by the Lord to his people, through the prophet Joel. This prophecy has been fully fulfilled, in that Jesus promised us that once given, the Holy Spirit will abide with us forever [John 14 verses 16-18].*

Therefore, he is already within God's people, yet our unfaithfulness prevents him from living in us.

The reason for this is that the Holy Spirit cannot live in those who are not faithful to the Scriptures, their sins separating them from the Lord [Acts 5 verse 32], [Isaiah 59 verses 1-2].

So, the Holy Spirit is there and, with him, the promised spiritual gifts, like the latter rain, but there is a snag, it is that when he pours out on the people of God, our sins are a barrier, like an umbrella that prevents this heavenly and life-giving water to arrive on us.

In order to change things, we must turn away from evil and stop practicing the doctrines of men to the detriment of the word of God.

We must also resist the devil, while submitting to God, so that we will have victory over the devil and he will eventually flee from us [James 4 verses 7-10].

Once these foundations are in place, we must make a new covenant with Jesus, through the bonds of baptism.

We find this reality in [Acts 19 verses 1-7].

Here we see that those who had been baptized but had not received the Holy Spirit were rebaptized. In fact, it was only after praying for them and laying on hands, among other things, that the Holy Spirit was given to them. When one has just been baptized and no spiritual gift is received, it is a symbol that the Lord has not accepted him and therefore the Spirit of God cannot be received.

The reason is that not all the steps of baptism have been put in place, we find this reality in the text of [Acts 19 verses 1-7].

The fact that the Holy Spirit was not given, can also mean that the one who was baptized practiced an iniquity during his baptism.

This act can be the fact of confessing doctrines of Man, in doing so, he loses the blessing that is attached to baptism, that of receiving the Spirit of God.

In this book, we will first discover the doctrines that transgress the word of God and that prevent those who are baptized from receiving the Holy Spirit.

These highlighted customs are those practiced by the Seventh-day Adventist religion, this book being intended for its reformation, we will therefore decipher them, Bible in hand, in order to achieve its reformation.

Then, in a second time, we will study the seven steps of the baptism, allowing to receive the Holy Spirit and at least a spiritual gift.

As you will see, the reality of receiving spiritual gifts is that we must first obey the word of God, and only then can we receive them from the Holy Spirit.

I would like to point out that it is actually an extract from a larger digital book, which has 572 pages, entitled "Inquisitiô (The message of the three angels) Volume V. Principles behind the reform of the iniquitous doctrines of the corrupting temptress who contravenes God's Word".

If, when referring to a chapter, you want more details, you can find them in the complete version of the book.

Finally, I would like to point out that this integral version has been split into 16 booklets, including this one.

The purpose of these booklets is to provide you with a better reading experience and a more manageable and transportable format.

They will also make it easier for you to choose the theme that suits you. However, both the booklets and the full version of the book are all made available to you in a digital format.

I invite you to download them from my site: <https://kenny-ronald-marguerite.com>

You can share it with your loved ones or talk about it with those around you.

GOOD TO KNOW:

Only 40 % of the English in the full version of the book has been corrected by a professional, so there are bound to be some mistakes in it, for which I apologise in advance.

I did not want to delay sending it out as quickly as possible to those for whom it is intended and that is why I decided to publish the English version without it being fully corrected.

Nevertheless I would like to congratulate and thank Mr. Howard Eeles for the quality of his work which means that English-speaking readers can now fully understand and appreciate the contents of the already corrected parts of this book.

I salute his enthusiasm, the excellence of his work and his professionalism and I know that he has succeeded in his task.

I therefore hope that you too will appreciate the great value of his work already done. God bless him!

The basics required to permit the latter rain to pour down on God's people

“No one can take flight with lead shoes on their feet. The children of God are destined to be eagles, celestial beings, sailing above the clouds. However, the sad reality is that the devil managed to chain them to the ground, by weighing them down with anti-biblical doctrines.

To those of you reading me, be sure that when you come before your saviour, you will not be rejected because of your iniquities or your complacency, like those described in [Matthew 7 verses 21-23] or like the foolish virgins [Matthew 25 verses 1-13]”.

[Quote from Kenny R MARGUERITE].

1.2 Reality of the reformation of the doctrine of the “remnant church” to be implemented within the Seventh-day Adventist Church

To begin this part, I would say to you that there is no one more blind than the one who is certain that his philosophy and the works he produces are unique and that no one else, according to him, can do what he does. Those who have such a philosophy usually have narrow vision. This reality we find in the following text:

“John said unto him, Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followed not us. But Jesus said, Forbid him not:

For there is no man who shall do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. For he that is not against us is for us”. [Mark 9 verses 38-40, American Standard Version Bible (ASV)].

Here, the lesson I take away is that the disciples thought they alone had the knowledge of the things of God, because Jesus walked beside them, they believed that only what they professed was the truth.

Worse they believed come that they had a monopoly, and by doing so, that no one other than them, could carry the label of servant of God.

Their reactions show us these realities, because the fact of having wanted to prevent this person from speaking about Jesus, because he did not walk (follow them) with them, therefore did not totally profess the same convictions as them, proves it.

How surprised the disciples must have been when Jesus justified this man by asking them not to prevent him from preaching in his name, and this despite the fact that he did not associate with them.

Often in life because of a special blessing given to us by the Lord, we come to be sectarian. This reality we find in the writings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church which recognizes that their religion is “the remnant church”.

Which is a blatant lie, but over time this religion has come to believe in this doctrine, we will see.

Often we have a set up philosophy that guides our lives and that we practice on a daily basis but which restricts reality, yet over time we end up thinking that this is the only way to go.

Example: I am a West Indian, a descendant of slaves.

For centuries my people have been uprooted from Africa, in order to be scattered over the entire surface of the globe.

Those who practiced this abject crime, had the philosophy that a black had only a pecuniary value and could not therefore claim to live in freedom.

These slave traders, as well as all those who had slaves, were often “good” Christians, but since the Catholic Church had recognized slavery as normal, everyone bought and used slaves as one would buy and use beasts of burden.

In this generation where, by the grace of God, such abominations have generally ceased, there are still lessons for us to learn from these most unfortunate episodes in history.

The first is that we must be very careful in the convictions that are ours when they discriminate against other human beings, or position us as being superior to them.

Such is the case with the doctrine of the Seventh-day Adventist Church which declares it to be the “remnant church”.

To present this reality to you, I invite you to read the following study, which is an extract from my book entitled “Inquisitiô (The message of the three angels) volume IV. The situation regarding the attack of the false prophet and the apocalyptic bestial lamb against God’s law and prophecy” in the chapter “Fallacious doctrines of the major falsifiers”.

This study first presents the basics that qualify the “remnant church”, then demonstrates the sectarian and anti-biblical character of the doctrine that Seventh-day Adventist dogma has instituted in the matter.

To begin our study, I invite you to read this text:

“And the dragon waxed wroth with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, that keep the commandments of God, and hold the testimony of Jesus” [Revelation 12 verse 17, American Standard Version Bible (ASV)].

We find in this text the bases qualifying the faithful people of the Lord who will live in the last times.

Here the members of the people of God are referred to by the name of “remnant of the seed of the woman”, which is generally referred to as “remnant church”. We find in this text the criteria for recognizing the “Church of the Remnant”:

The first point is that those who are part of it keep the commandments of God (therefore his Holy Law). The second criterion is that they have the testimony of Jesus.

A testimony is the fruit of what we profess. We have already seen that the testimony that Jesus bore consisted, when he was on earth, in making known the word of his Father.

The purpose of this testimony was to make known to men the name of the Lord God so that he might be glorified. So as we are told that the “remnant church” keeps the testimony of Jesus, it therefore symbolizes that these members are keeping these teachings.

For the remainder of our study, it is important to clarify what this notion of the teachings of Christ kept by these elect in the last times covers.

In the chapter “Reality of the reformation of the doctrine of the “Spirit of Prophecy” to be implemented within the Seventh-day Adventist Church”, we have already studied that the testimony of Jesus, which is also called the Spirit of prophecy, consists of the Holy Spirit taking in the name of Jesus Christ, the new prophetic revelations of God the Father to bring them to men.

These prophetic messages are entrusted to the prophet who receive them from the Spirit of God in dream(s) and in vision(s).

Moreover, the Lord does nothing without having revealed his plans to these servants the prophets and prophetesses and what qualifies them as such is that they have received at least either a dream or a vision which has come true according to what he had prophesied.

Those who would like to rediscover these realities, I invite you to read the chapter that I have just presented. We have done, in my opinion, a titanic job regarding the reality of “the Spirit of Prophecy” and have flown over the one presenting “the remnant church”. To strengthen our study we will now go deeper into this topic.

Therefore the “remnant church” has within it the gift of prophecy, commonly called “the Spirit of Prophecy” and it also keeps all of the Lord’s commandments.

God has established prophecy and his holy Law to guide and turn his people away from evil ways: [Proverbs 29 verse 18].

Therefore these two poles are important, especially the dreams and visions associated with prophecy! In [2 Peter 1 verse 19], the Lord declares that we are to pay attention to it as a sure light to guide us.

In doing so, keeping the prophecy is therefore a pledge of sustainability for God’s people.

In addition, in [2 Chronicles 20 verse 20], God’s Word tells us that those who want to be successful in their undertakings will have to confide in their prophet and therefore in the revelations that the Lord gives to the prophet. I cannot emphasise this enough:

These revelations are received, among other things, in dreams and visions.

Therefore the remnant church has the knowledge within it enabling it to manage God’s commandments and the dreams and visions, which are the basis of prophecy. Here again is how “the faithful remnant of God” is presented in prophetic language:

“God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; And I am left alone, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him?”

I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. [...] For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits;

That blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved:

As it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins. As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: But as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes. For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance". [Romans 11 verses 2-5, 25-29, BRG Bible (BRG)].

As you can see, the faithful remnant of God (His "remnant church") is made up of Jews, but also of Christians from paganism. Here is how this selection criterion is presented:

"[...] For You were slain (sacrificed), and with Your blood You purchased people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation. "You have made them to be a kingdom [of royal subjects] and priests to our God; and they will reign on the earth." [Revelation 5 verses 9-10, Amplified Bible (AMP)].

The slain Lamb represents Jesus Christ, who by His divine sacrifice redeemed mankind [1 Peter 1 verses 13-21], [Philippians 2 verses 5-11], [Hebrews 10 verses 1-24].

The "remnant church" therefore consists of all of those whom Christ redeemed by His blood and set apart.

In Jesus they become a people [Ephesians 2 verses 11-22].

It is imperative that you understand that the remnant of God is not a religion, for those presented in these texts as having been redeemed by Christ originate from every people, nation, tribe, etc., and Jesus made them the ones who will reign with Him.

In accordance with what we have just seen, we find his chosen people by his side on Mount Zion and therefore at his second coming.

The following provides information:

"And I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on the mount Zion, and with him a hundred and forty and four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads.

These are they that follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the first-fruits unto God and unto the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no lie:

They are without blemish". [Revelation 14 verses 1-5, American Standard Version Bible (ASV)].

In this text those redeemed by Christ have several distinctive features : They are with him wherever he goes.

They are pure and no lie has been found in their mouth. The term "lie" that we find in this text represents the fact that Jesus Christ's chosen ones did not transgress the truth. In order to understand the meaning of a lie we must take into account the following text:

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him.

When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it". [John 8 verse 44, King James Bible].

He who practises a lie does not stand in the truth, which is God's Word [John 17 verse 17] and therefore becomes a child of the devil [1 John 3 verses 1, 3-10].

To summarise what we have just seen:

He who commits sin transgresses God's law, which is His holy Word [Deuteronomy 5 verses 1-22, (especially verse 22)] and therefore is considered a child of the devil who seeks to work for him. His work, like the devil, is represented as being a lie.

On the contrary, the faithful remnant of God does not violate His commandments, therefore does not practise lying and has the spirit of prophecy (the gift of prophecy).

Based on what we have just seen, when we look at modern Christianity, we realise that few religions meet the criteria of the "remnant church". Few can present evidence that they faithfully keep God's commandments and have the gift of prophecy.

Of this minority, the Seventh-day Adventist Church is presenting itself as being eligible.

Before continuing, I would like to emphasize that we have just left the first part of our study, we are now beginning the one that will allow us to understand, Bible in hand, if the Seventh-day Adventist Church presents the qualifying bases of both the “remnant church” and the “Spirit of Prophecy”. To do this, I invite you to read what this religion professes in the matter, by reading this:

“Baptismal Vow and Commitment n° 13: Do you accept and believe that the Seventh-day Adventist Church “is the remnant church of Bible prophecy” and that people of every nation, race, and language are invited and accepted into its fellowship?

Do you desire to be a member of this local congregation of the world Church?” [Seventh-day Adventist Church Manual, 19TH, Edition revised 2015/2016, Published by the Secretariat General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists].

It should be noted that the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not advocate that it is part of the “remnant church”, but that it is the “remnant church”.

This means that it is the only church to be accepted by God as such and that only its members will be with Jesus when He returns.

This Seventh-day Adventist baptismal doctrine obliges the person who is baptised to confess that the Seventh-day Adventist Church is the remnant church, which automatically disqualifies other Christian religions as well as the Jews.

Thus, it no longer even tries to conceal its claim to be the only faithful church of God having his Spirit. Such doctrines give rise to sectarian intolerance and are the source of many aberrations. Often those who are conditioned in this way end up spreading bloodshed!

The most elementary knowledge of God’s Word shows that the Seventh-day Adventist Church alone cannot be the remnant church.

As we have seen, this faithful remnant of God is formed from the Jewish people as well as from the various peoples, religions and nations, which have come from paganism.

It is true that within the Seventh-day Adventist Church various peoples come together, nevertheless, not all of the tribes and religions of the Jewish people have allied themselves with the Seventh-day Adventist Church recognising it as the ultimate church of God.

Remember, salvation comes from the Jews in Jesus Christ, and through the promise God made to Abraham [John 4 verse 22], [Galatians 3], [Romans 11].

By proclaiming itself to be the “remnant church”, the Seventh-day Adventist Church openly transgresses God’s Word, implying that all other Christian denominations and the Jewish people are not part of it!

While it is written that the Jews, the twelve tribes of Israel, are the heirs of God in Abraham and that God’s chosen people is made up of the Jews and all those coming from the Gentiles, who have converted in Jesus Christ. The remnant of God will be made up of all of the races and denominations.

Therefore, the gift of prophecy, the distinctive feature of the “remnant church” is given for the edification of all of God’s people and not for just part of it [1 Corinthians 14 verse 22].

These criteria of intolerance and exclusion, which the Seventh-day Adventist Church has decreed concerning other Christian religions, as well as towards the Jewish people, brings out its sectarian character.

This impression becomes a reality when you read the chapter entitled “The illegal practices of the corrupting temptress” where I demonstrate that the Seventh-day Adventist Church has acted like the sects.

Now that these points have been made we can continue to dissect the Seventh-day Adventist doctrinal argument, in which the Seventh-day Adventist Church presents itself as the “remnant church”.

Now that these precepts have been established, we can move on. In this century, the Seventh-day Adventist Church claims to be the only religion that can be called “the remnant church”, yet here is its basis of faith in dreams and visions:

“Dreams and visions widely differ as a source of reliable communication. In visions the whole person, mental and physical, is under the entire control of a higher power;

Therefore what is then communicated is really from the being holding this control over the person. In dreams we are more liable to be swayed by our thoughts through the day and the external circumstances and influences around us;

Therefore from their nature and varied source we cannot rely upon them with that certainty that we can upon visions”

[Visions and dreams their origin, nature, and utility. The Advent Review, and Sabbath Herald, (ARSH) vol. 7, Feb. 28, 1856 February 28, 1856, de David Arnold].

Here, in the pen of David Arnold and through the Review and Herald, which is a magazine steeped in the Seventh-day Adventist tradition this religion initiates the desacralisation of dreams and visions. Arnold presents them as unreliable sources.

In support of this theory, he presents the state of “total sub-control” in which the person who has a vision can find him or herself.

Thus, for him, the images (visions) of the one who is thus controlled come from the one who controls him.

Having only two such powers, God or the devil, thus not being able speak of the Lord, so it is that this religion speaks of the devil.

For this author, this control can come from our thoughts, external circumstances and influences.

Thus, for him, dreams would not be 100% reliable. The Seventh-day Adventist Church claims to have based its knowledge on God’s Word, yet while it advocates that “dreams and visions are far from being a reliable source of communication[...]”, as we have seen, the Bible states the opposite.

Our study has already enabled us to highlight the intrinsic reality which binds both the remnant church to the Spirit of prophecy which is based on the revelations that the Lord gives to these prophets for his people. These are based on dreams and visions.

The Lord not being a madman, if he established dreams and visions as the basis of the prophetic messages, he thereby gives us the certainty that they are reliable, otherwise it would make him pass for a madman.

And we know, the Lord is omniscient and is magnified wisdom, so his prophetic word, so these dreams and visions are sure messages to human beings. To continue, let's discover this second text which is from the pen of the same author:

“Dreams are produced from three sources: First, by the power of the Holy Ghost moving upon the mental faculties, stamping upon the perceptions and memory by figures or otherwise the intelligence God designs to give.

Such was the dream of Pharaoh of the seven fat and lean kine by which God communicated the knowledge of the approaching famine; also, Nebuchadnezzar’s notable dream of the Metallic Image.

Second, by the power of Satan; as in the dreams of which Job speaks in chap 7: 14: “Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions.”

Third, through a multiplicity of business. During the labors, cares, and excitements of the day the mental organs become surcharged with thoughts and do not sink to rest as soon as the external organs;

Consequently the thoughts are more or less active and real as the faculties one by one sink away to rest.

To this source may be charged a great share of the entire mass of dreams”. [Visions and dreams their origin, nature, and utility. The Advent Review, and Sabbath Herald, (ARSH) vol. 7, Feb. 28, 1856 February 28, 1856, de David Arnold].

First of all, I want to clarify that this text by David Arnold as well as the first one that we have just discovered, although they are historical texts, I retrieved them, the 26th of July, 2021, on the site “<https://m.egwwritings.org/en/book/1641.6202>”.

This site is one of those belonging to the Seventh-day Adventist Church. It is therefore a basis of the current faith that this religion conveys. Otherwise, in this last text, the author presents his own understanding of what qualifies dreams and he classifies them into three categories.

Those who come from the Lord, those who come from the devil and finally those which are due to bodily reactions, which for the author are often caused by worries, occupations, daily occurrences. So for him the bulk of the dreams that we receive, come from the mental organs and therefore from the brain.

According to him the mental organs use the thoughts stored from images during the day as the raw data for our dreams.

The repercussion is that during rest periods while the body relaxes, the brain continues to work and generates images already accumulated during the day, and, for the author, this is what gives us most of the dreams we have.

In his thesis Mr. Arnold presents a biblical text to support the fact that, according to him, the devil has the capacity to speak to us in dreams. We are therefore going to find out, in order to see whether this is really the case. This is what this text states:

“Then You frighten me with dreams and terrify me through visions” [Job 7 verse 14, Amplified Bible (AMP)].

When one reads this verse, which presents the fear which is linked to certain dreams and visions that Job had, one might be tempted to think that the one who gave him these terrifying images was the devil.

In order to know their author, it is enough to read some of the above lines in this same chapter of Job which follows.

“Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, I will complain in the bitterness of my soul [O Lord]”. [Job 7 verse 11, Amplified Bible (AMP)].

Hmm... SOS Houston we have a problem...

Yes, because I do not read this text in the same way as Mr. Arnold, because here Job is addressing God.

I invite you to read this entire chapter and you will see, that he presents the Lord as being the source of these sufferings, including these traumatic dreams and visions.

One might think that the Lord does not give dreams or visions that could traumatise, yet it was the case for Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, the pharaoh who lived during the time of Joseph (who was sold by these brothers).

To discover these dreams I invite you to read: [Daniel 4 verses 1-2, 21-22], [Genesis 41 verses 1-8, 25-33].

This was also the case for the great prophet Daniel, who was so upset by this type of image he had received from the Lord that he was sick for several days [Daniel 8 versets 26-27].

In order to discover the biblical reality of traumatic dreams, therefore nightmares, read my book entitled “Nise (The ABC of the World of Dreams Unveiled)” in the chapter “Are nightmares demonic materialisations or are they divine cryptic messages?”.

Now this point has been made, we can continue. Have you noticed that in his text, where he presents the three kinds of dreams and visions, that he uses the dreams that the Pharaoh and Nebuchadnezzar had, to present those coming from God, while to highlight those who, according to him, come from the devil, he presents the dreams and visions that Job had and which traumatised him?

Yet all of these dreams, though nightmarish, are from the Lord! So, how do you attribute certain dreams to the Lord and others to the devil, if it is not, because one is blinded by a spirit of confusion. [...]

To understand where the Seventh-day Adventist Church gets this doctrine of desecrating dreams and visions, we need to go back to everything the Catholic Church teaches. To do this, read my book entitled “Inquisitiô (The three angels' message), volume II. The reality of the attack of the little horn of Daniel 7 against the Law of God and the times of prophecy. Historical part” in the chapters “How did Christianity come to wear the coat of arms of paganism in matters of dreams and visions to the detriment of the Word of God?” and “The unexpected pupils of the “holy” felon knight”.

Thus by considering the precepts presented in the “Review and Herald”, we understand that Seventh-day Adventist belief in dreams and visions comes from Catholic dogma, which itself inherited it from the idolator Macrobius. Worse!

The basis of the Seventh-day Adventist faith in this matter is a quasi-plagiarism of Catholic teachings and Macrobius. How can we consider the fact that the Seventh-day Adventist Church, which sets itself up as the judge and the whistleblower regarding the errors of the Catholic Church’s teachings, practises these doctrines?

And this to the detriment of what God’s Word advocates in terms of dreams and visions. So as you can see, the Seventh-day Adventist church has come to practise the Catholic doctrines with respect to dreams and visions, hence of prophecy, and thereby desecrates these things.

Let us continue! To do this, I would like to ask you a question:

To you who are reading me, are you aware of the organisation that would be required for a Church that claims to have the gift of prophecy?

To understand this, we need to read this text : “But if all prophesy [foretelling the future, speaking a new message from God to the people], and an unbeliever or outsider comes in, he is convicted [of his sins] by all, and he is called to account by all [because he can understand what is being said]; The secrets of his heart are laid bare.

And so, falling on his face, he will worship God, declaring that God is really among you. [...]

Let two or three prophets speak [as inspired by the Holy Spirit], while the rest pay attention and weigh carefully what is said. But if an inspired revelation is made to another who is seated, then the first one must be silent.

For [in this way] you can all prophesy one by one, so that everyone may be instructed and everyone may be encouraged;

For the spirits of prophets are subject to the prophets [the prophecy is under the speaker’s control, and he can stop speaking];

For God [who is the source of their prophesying] is not a God of confusion and disorder but of peace and order. [...] [1 Corinthians 14 verses 24-25, 29-33, Amplified Bible (AMP)].

We see that in churches where the spirit of prophecy is the foundation of worship, the religious services are carried out in such a way that the prophets can bring the revelations that God has given them at any time.

To do this, the Church is organised so that there is no disorder and that each prophet has time to speak.

As we have seen, the gift of prophecy is one of the foundations intended to preserve God's people from straying.

In doing so, the Churches which claim this gift must be organised so that the revelations that God gives to their members, in dreams and/or in visions, are explained and shared in a collegial manner.

This organisation should be further strengthened within the remnant Church having as its backbone God's commandments and the Spirit of prophecy (dreams and visions).

In the case of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, this is not the case, for although God's commandments are the backbone of their faith, as we have seen, dreams and visions are outlawed in their dogma.

However, this fact is at odds with what this religion preaches, for the Seventh-day Adventist faith is based on Ellen G. White who recognised in her lifetime the validity of dreams and visions as being the basis of prophecy.

We have come to the end of this study taken from my other book. Now that we have discovered the qualifying bases of "the remnant Church" and seen the nonsense of the Adventist doctrine on the matter let us enter in the part of the reform having to be set up.

To begin I invite you to read this other text which presents the basis of faith of this religion in the matter: "[...] This is not just an organization, this is not just another denomination.

This is God's remnant church," Wilson said in an address to delegates after his appointment. [...]

"The Spirit of Prophecy is one of the great gifts God has given to the Seventh-day Adventist Church [...]" [Wilson elected president of Seventh-day Adventist world church. ANN and Adventist.newsof, June 24, 2010. From the site: <https://adventist.news/>].

It should be noted that what we have just read is a speech by the President of Seventh-day Adventists, Mr. Ted Wilson.

In view of all that we have just studied and of what we had already seen, we understand well that the Seventh-day Adventist Church cannot alone be the "remnant Church" of the Lord, his ultimate faithful people.

We have seen that precept of this religion are most pernicious because it disqualifies all other Christian religions or the Jewish people as also being part of the "remnant Church".

So in all of these writings this religion should henceforth no longer present itself as being the "remnant Church", what can eventually be put in place is "part of the remnant church".

However, to be eligible, the Seventh-day Adventist Church must be able to demonstrate that it fulfills the two points of eligibility of the “remnant Church”, namely keeping the commandments of the Lord and having within it the gift of prophecy, therefore a living and working prophet. Which is not the case in this generation.

It is important to keep in mind that the term “Spirit of Prophecy” represents the Spirit of God bringing new revelation to the prophet(s) in dream(s) and/or vision(s), which is presented in the Bible as prophecy. This reality shows us that a dead prophet or prophetess can no longer be eligible for such revelations from the Spirit of the Lord.

It should be noted that, although the office of a prophet ceases after his death, nevertheless, when he dies, his prophecies remain, without his gift remaining.

Example: the writings of the apostle John, and particularly the prophetic book of Revelation, were bequeathed to the people of God. Although the basis of these prophetic writings remains, but can we claim to always have his gift, which would allow him to receive revelations from God in dreams or visions from beyond the grave? Of course not !

So that no one can claim at the present moment the prophetic ministry of a dead person, to justify that his people hold the gift of prophecy! According to the study, it can be said that Ellen G. White – by the mere mention of her name or her writings – cannot confer upon the Seventh-day Adventist Church the status of a place where the gift of prophecy is to be found, simply because she was, in her lifetime, a prophetess! Indeed, she can no longer play this role, which ceased with her death.

For it to be prophecy there must be one or prophets, who receive dreams and/or visions from the Lord. As it stands, the Adventist Church, having no consecrated prophet, cannot claim to have prophecy in its midst.

We have seen that while claiming to be the “remnant church”, one of the bases of election of which is prophecy (the spirit of prophecy), the Seventh-day Adventist Church rejects dreams and visions and recognizes that they are unreliable as a message from God.

Such a doctrinal basis is heresy, for as we have seen, the reality of prophecy is that the Lord gives dreams and visions to these servants the prophets.

Especially since the Adventist doctrinal basis on dreams and visions being a copy-paste of the teachings of Catholic dogma which is a doctrine that Macrobius, who was a pagan, established and which became the basis of faith of this religion in dreams and visions.

This Catholic doctrine is the literal materialization of the attack that the little horn was to carry out against the times, which are in fact those of prophecy, and therefore by extension those established in the realization of dreams and visions.

To enter in depth into this reality, I invite you to read my book entitled “Inquisitiô (The three angels' message), volume III. The reality of the attack of the little horn of Daniel 7 against the Law of God and the times of prophecy. Prophetic part” in the chapter “The reality of prophetic times”.

We understand that the beautiful and delicate bride of the Lord, which the Seventh-day Adventist Church is supposed to be, cannot continue to copulate with the seven-headed, ten-horned beast, which is also the little horn (the Catholic Church) by professing its doctrinal basis.

This part of the reformation is simple:

This religion must return to its old and good path, and restore dreams and visions to their rightful place as they were in the days of the old Seventh-day Adventists contemporary with Mrs. White.

To discover this reality, I invite you to read my book entitled “Inquisitiô (The message of the three angels) volume IV. The situation regarding the attack of the false prophet and the apocalyptic bestial lamb against God's law and prophecy” in the chapter “Fallacious doctrines of the major falsifiers”.

So? either dreams and visions find their place within this religion, or it stops professing that it has prophecy or the Spirit of Prophecy, because without them it is not possible.

2 A light for the future

7o begin with, I would like to tell you that there are titanic battles being fought that, at first sight, seem to be lost by the weakest party.

Yet! In the Bible, a similar case is presented in the struggle between the frail young shepherd David and the giant warrior Goliath.

The end result was not the victory of the powerful, but of faith.

To understand this image that I have just taken it is important to take into account certain realities:

In my books in the “Inquisitiô” series I shed light on the antibiblical doctrines practiced by the Seventh-day Adventist and Catholic churches, etc.

In my book entitled “Infamy of the State (Reality of unconstitutional acts practiced by the French State in violation of its constitution)” it is against powerful nations of the earth that I raise me.

The objective being that justice and truth can prevail, so that those who have not been vaccinated against covid 19 as well as Sabbath and Shabbat observants, who have been and still are discriminated against in France, because of vaccinal laws and Sundays, can win their case.

Thus, in view of the financial and intellectual power of those against whom I am speaking out, I certainly cannot, from a human point of view, face such entities alone.

It is for this reason that it is in the mighty name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth that, throughout these long fourteen years, I have continued to work so that the truth may come to light.

I have the assurance that my Saviour is alive and will soon make the nobility of my struggles appear not to be quibbles emanating from a “deranged” mind, but realities worthy of consideration.

My conviction is that the Lord is asking us in this generation to set the captives free according to His call manifested in the text that follows: “The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, Because the Lord has anointed and commissioned me To bring good news to the humble and afflicted;

He has sent me to bind up [the wounds of] the brokenhearted, To proclaim release [from confinement and condemnation] to the [physical and spiritual] captives And freedom to prisoners, To proclaim the favorable year of the Lord, And the day of vengeance and retribution of our God, To comfort all who mourn,” [Isaiah 61 verses 1-3, Amplified Bible (AMP)].

That is why, in spite of the fact that until now I have been alone in turning the millstone for the Lord, I have faith that through these lines, the “spiritual” captives will hear His voice and will take a stand, which will allow them to have a future!

However, I have faith that this work will be accomplished through the power of the Lord, not by any power that comes from my being, but by God’s Spirit, according to what we can read in the following text: “Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of Jehovah unto Zerubbabel, saying, not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith Jehovah of hosts.

Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain [...] [Zechariah 4 verse 6-7, American Standard Version Bible (ASV)].

Moreover, I have the deep conviction that the Lord will use my books for His glory. They are the fruits of a long study of historical, legal and biblical research and will lay the foundations that will enable things to change on all incriminated points.

On the strength of all of this, it is time for God's people to make their voice heard unanimously like a lion.

The objective is that the realities found in this book, in the other volumes of this “Inquisitiô” series, can cover the surface of the Earth, as the waters cover the bottom of the seas.

These books are available, free of charge in digital format, in English and French, on my website which you will find at the end of this chapter. It should be noted that the “Inquisitiô” series has 5 books, in my opinion voluminous because, in digital format, they are each 572 pages.

For better reading comfort, the Holy Spirit inspired me to transform each of these books into several booklets, including the one you have in your hands.

To continue, I would say to you that it is important to understand that the acts of reform presented in these books will not be able to happen without you.

God’s Word teaches us in [Ecclesiastes 9 verses 15-16] that the wisdom (knowledge) that the destitute could bring to the powerful will be despised.

If I fight this battle alone without you who are the lovers of righteousness and truth, the message contained in this book will remain a dead letter.

Therefore, the voices of God's people in all their diversity of faith must be able to unite as one in order to be heard.

One of the most beautiful images I have of the unity that leads to victory is presented in the text of [Ecclesiastes 4 verses 9-12], which in essence for me portrays union as strength.

This kind of titanic work cannot be done alone, especially since we are not the master but a servant. I am the bearer of this message but its owner is the Eternal God!

This artwork, which I have presented to you in this book, as well as in its other volumes of the “Inquisitiô” series, center on the message of the 3 apocalyptic angels.

The Lord has chosen this generation so that we, His faithful people, have the great honour of proclaiming this salutary message to the world.

This good news, in Jesus Christ, will determine the future of humanity. It is intended to begin the screening of the people of God, the end being that two very distinct peoples can come out of the ranks.

On one side will be the saints, who keep God's commandments and have the faith of Jesus (they have the Spirit of prophecy). Their choice will lead them to bear the divine seals, formed from God's name and that of Jesus Christ.

Their future will be to inherit God's kingdom. On the other hand, there will be those who either reject these two things or those who have deliberately chosen to reject the Lord.

Their fate will be to receive the mark of the beast and they will end up burning in the lake of fire and brimstone also known as the fire of Gehenna.

So that no one is lost for not having heard the message of grace, in Jesus, which God addresses to mankind, He sent these sentries to proclaim his offer of salvation, which is manifest in the messages of the three angels [Revelation 14 verses 6-13].

As a watchman and bearer of the message of salvation, the Lord will hold us accountable for what we have done with the warnings He intends for our neighbours. This gives us information:

“[you know] how I did not shrink back in fear from telling you anything that was for your benefit, or from teaching you in public meetings, and from house to house, solemnly [and wholeheartedly] testifying to both Jews and Greeks, urging them to turn in repentance to God and [to have] faith in our Lord Jesus Christ [for salvation]. [...]

“And now, listen carefully: I know that none of you, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom, will see me again.

For that reason I testify to you on this [our parting] day that I am innocent of the blood of all people.

For I did not shrink from declaring to you the whole purpose and plan of God". [Acts 20 verses 20-21, 25-27, Amplified Bible (AMP)].

In order to understand what it is all about with regard to the blood of his neighbor of which Paul declares to be innocent, we must read the following: "The word of the Lord came to me. Son of man, speak to your countrymen and say this to them.

When I bring a sword against a land, and the people of the land appoint one man from their midst as their watchman, and that man sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the ram's horn to warn the people, then if anyone who hears the sound of the ram's horn does not heed the warning, and as a result the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head.

He heard the sound of the ram's horn, but he did not take warning, so his own blood is on him. If he had heeded the warning, he would have saved his life.

But if the watchman sees the sword coming but does not blow the ram's horn, and as a result the people are not warned, then if the sword comes and takes one of them away, that man has been taken away because of his own guilt, but I will also hold the watchman responsible for his blood.

But I have appointed you, son of man, to be a watchman for the house of Israel. So whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you are to warn them from me.

When I say to a wicked man, "Wicked man, you shall surely die," if you do not speak to warn the wicked man against his way, that wicked man will die because of his guilt, but I will also hold you responsible for his blood.

But if you do warn the wicked man to turn from his way, and he does not turn from his way, he will die because of his guilt, but you will have saved your life". [Ezekiel 33 verses 1-9, Evangelical Heritage Version (EHV)].

As was the case in biblical times, in this century and until the return of Jesus Christ, as it was with the apostle Paul, we the children of God as his sentinels (watchmans) and as such accounts to us will be required by the Lord.

If we do not warn them and they die in their sins, the Lord will make them bear the burden of their iniquities, but he will ask us for their blood again.

So the faithful servant of God must also be wise and must make sure that he does not have the blood on his hands of his neighbour, who he did not warn.

You who have read this book so far, with Bible in hand, in a spirit of prayer and have probed its contents must act.

Initially, so that you are well aware of the totality of the message that the Spirit of God gives me to carry, I invite you to read the booklets which form volumes II, III, IV and V of the series entitled "Inquisitiô".

It should be noted that the first volume of this series is being rewritten and is therefore not yet available. Once you have read the contents of these books or their booklets, you can take action.

To do this, having established this base, like autumn leaves blown away by the wind, they must all – books and booklets – be distributed to as many people as possible.

To do this, share them by all means:

Email, Facebook, WhatsApp, Instagram, etc.

We must now consider other realities linked to such a substantial work, both in terms of the study work it required and the volume of works. Indeed, it is not without difficulty that this type of quest is carried out. The losses I had to suffer attest to this!

I have presented my financial situation to you in this book entitled "Inquisitiô (The three angels' message), volume II. The reality of the attack of the little horn of Daniel 7 against the Law of God and the times of prophecy. Historical part" in the chapter "Brief career synopsis, philosophy of life and discriminatory oppression".

In this titanic struggle that I lead, for truth and justice, my finances have also been impacted.

In this book that I have just presented to you, I tell you how as an observer of the Sabbath and because of my profession as a hairdresser, my funds are at a low ebb because I am hindered by the French laws forbidding me to work on Sundays.

Moreover, because I denounce in one of my books the anti-biblical doctrines that the Seventh Day Adventist Church – which was once my religion – practices, I have suffered the desertion of my hairdressing salon, by the “bulk” of my customers who are members of this religion, which has dealt a big blow to my finances.

To learn more about this, I invite you to read my book entitled “Inquisitiô (The message of the three angels) volume IV. The situation regarding the attack of the false prophet and the apocalyptic bestial lamb against God’s law and prophecy. Historical part”.

Moreover, the technical unemployment due to this pandemic of Corona virus, as well as the iniquitous actions of Mr. Vincent GUILGAULT against me – he has, in an arbitrary way and in opposition to the laws, blocked me so that I cannot perceive for my two companies the subsidy allocated to the companies in difficulty because of the pandemic –, has worsened the situation even more, I thus find myself to survive.

You will be able to discover these realities in my book entitled “Infamy of the State (Reality of unconstitutional acts practiced by the French State in violation of its constitution)” in the chapter “Presentation of the facts inherent in the inappropriate treatment of my file by this tax official, Mr. Vincent GUILGAULT”.

As you can see, hard knocks have followed one another in order to harm this work that the Lord has entrusted to me, the repercussions being that I can no longer invest financially for its advancement because I am in great precariousness.

On this day, I cannot continue to invest for books.

Yes, things are extremely difficult but I have faith in the work that the Lord gives me to carry out. This is why I wanted to continue despite these difficulties and why you will find a good part of the book which could not be corrected, for lack of means.

To continue I would tell you that I find in the work of all these people who have attacked me in one way or another the imprint of the devil, because I know that these people are not my enemies, but they it was the devil who used them to harm me.

This reality stems from the fact that we do not have to fight against flesh and blood, but against the forces of darkness, so that our persecutors are not our enemies, but they are puppets that the devil uses to persecute us.

Here is what we can read about it: “Put on the armor of God so that you will be able to stand firm against the deceit of the devil.

For we are not struggling against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, the powers, and the cosmic rulers of this present darkness, and against the spirits of evil in the heavens”. [Ephesians 6 verses 11-12, New Catholic Bible (NCB)].

Let's complete with this other text: “We are sure that God's children do not keep on sinning. God's own Son protects them, and the devil cannot harm them. We are certain that we come from God and that the rest of the world is under the power of the devil”. [1 John 5 verses 18-19, Contemporary English Version Bible (CEV)].

Let's end with this: “If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me”. [John 15 verses 18-21, King James Bible].

When the devil seeks to destroy and/or persecute us, he will often use those who have rejected the Lord and who by their actions have become children of the devil [John 8 verse 44].

The devil, knowing that he has little time left, is unleashed and is in a great rage; his imperious objective is to lose as many people as possible. So he will wage war against anyone who brings to men the light of the pure Gospel in Jesus Christ.

Considering the content of this book as well as that of the other volumes of this collection "Inquisitiô", I am not surprised of what I live.

With hindsight I would tell you that one of the most drastic attacks that the devil made against me was through Mr. GUILGAULT, because thanks to the money from this subsidy, which I was able to collect, I undertook to correct the spiritual books that the Holy Spirit inspired me and that as well in English as in French.

I first started by correcting one of the volumes of the book that you have in hand and that I thought would have appeared as is.

Nevertheless, once this first book was finished and after re-reading, I realized that it contained three very distinct themes that could be developed to each constitute a book.

This is what I did and this first book of 572 pages which was corrected by the English proofreader Mr. Howard J. Eeles became the structure of four books of 572 pages each. These four books therefore have very specific objectives.

This work was titanic and still is, because by finishing this book that you have in your hands, it will make 8 books of 572 pages, 4 in English and their double in French, that I will have finished, by the grace of God.

It remains to finish my book entitled "Inquisitiô (The three angels' message) volume I, What has advenu of the holiness of the Word of God ?", always in two versions, in English and in French, which I will start, God willing, as soon as the first volumes are finished.

Of these 8 first books of 572 pages each, I have already been able to correct in French about 30% and 40% of those in English.

I have already invested a little more than 13500 euros, so all my savings, until the last cens so that these books can see the day and all this, while they are offered for free in digital version in French and in English.

It was a great joy for me to see my ideas materialize in books, especially those that are in English, because although I do not master this language, the Spirit of God gives me the ability to translate my books and I do them corrected by a proportional corrector.

Unfortunately, the devil to use Mr. GUILGAULT and inspired him to foment against me iniquitous works, the direct repercussion was that I could not continue the correction of these books.

In order to make parts of this book available to you, I had to borrow money from my friend Nicole.

I know that God will act in his time so that I am no longer his debtor. I am very grateful to the Lord for having put her on my way and also for this trust she placed in me and in this work.

I am very grateful to the Lord for having put them on my path and also for the trust they have placed in me and in this work.

Yes, things are extremely difficult, but I have faith in the work that the Lord has given me to do. That is why I wanted to continue despite these difficulties and you will find a good part of the book that could not be corrected because of lack of means. I apologize for the spelling and conjugation errors that you will surely find.

And I would like in all humility to thank my friend Nicole, who, with the little time she had, gave certain parts of the texts in French a certain coherence.

To continue, I would like to tell you that sometimes the stumbling-blocks appear before me like the Red Sea and the problems and difficulties follow me like the raging Egyptians.

I am certainly destitute, but I continue to move forward despite life's storms thanks to my faith and the fact that I know I serve a great God. So I know he will act, one way or another!

The devil is already defeated, the Lord alone is the Almighty and no one can prevent his work from progressing.

Strong in this conviction that is why, despite the difficult situation, I continue to walk by faith, and I put in place the plans that I received from the Spirit of God in dreams.

My ambition in this life is neither wealth nor fame.

My abiding goal is to bring my knowledge to this generation and to leave a literary legacy to future generations.

To come back to this literary work that the Lord has entrusted to me, I would say to you that since I can neither continue to edit these books, nor offer them for digital sale because they are only partially corrected, I have chosen to offer them free on my site, I will present it to you at the end of this chapter.

So that you can understand my philosophy and my faith, I am going to present you with an allegory:

Imagine that you have an orange tree that gives you abundant oranges that are as sweet as honey, which you intend to sell.

However, situated where you are, no one knows that you have any for sale. As a result, your oranges rot on the tree while you are in need. To change this situation, you make plans to sell them and to do so you present them at a fair so that as many people as possible can taste them.

Knowing that they are as sweet as you want them to be, you know that those who come and taste them will be conquered and that you will be able to live off your harvest.

This persona that I adopt to present my books may seem presumptuous to you. Nethertheless, for me, my works are like these oranges, since they are the fruit of extensive research and a lot of hard work. Given their content, I am confident that they will provide you with knowledge that will strengthen you.

I still have much to tell you through my books, which are in the process of being published. I invite you, through their lines, to make new journeys. Before continuing, I would like to make it clear that I did not study literature, I am above all a passionate author not a writer.

I address various themes in my books, which are dear to my heart and which highlight my deep convictions.

This love of writing came to me one day when I had to reflect on the fleeting duration of our life on Earth.

Many people have worked, enjoy the fruits of their labour during their lifetime, but often after their death there is nothing left of what they were, of their thoughts, or of their convictions. They go down into the grave and “wither away like the ether”. I have no knowledge of what my forefathers were like. What their convictions were or what they did during their lives. All of this remains a mystery to me. Especially since I hail from the Caribbean, I come from a people who have experienced the chains and alienation of slavery. My need to write and my passion for words have stemmed from these reflections! My deepest wish is to convey my knowledge and convictions in writing in order to share my books with those who will enjoy them and who, I hope, will be inspired by them.

I address various themes in my books, which are dear to my heart and which highlight my deep convictions, the most important of all being the love I have for the Lord and the need, at all times, to give glory to his name.

Although I have already had the great pleasure of publishing several of my books, due to a lack of funds, I have not been able to find the necessary funds to publish five other books, other than the four I have already presented to you, which are just as rich as the one you have in hand, and which are already in progress. There is still a lot to be done for the truth to come to light with as many people as possible.

If this book you have in your hands has strengthened you, I invite you to read and distribute my other works to as many people as possible, because they will certainly bring you knowledge that will certainly also be beneficial to you.

Many of these books are, or will soon be, by the grace of God available for free download on my website.

Unfortunately for me, “money being the sinews of war”, since I have already invested all of my funds in the publishing of these first books that I presented to you before, in doing so, I no longer have the means to continue this work.

What I find most damaging is that apart from the 4 books, which are already finished in French (as well as their doubles in English, or 8 books), and which I offer for free on my site, but which are awaiting be corrected, I still have 5 other works that I have already put in place the framework but which are awaiting completion.

To continue I would tell you that this book that you have in your hands as well as all those of the series “Inquisitiô (The three angels' message)” have presented to you my mode of writing, based on the word of God, and which is reinforced with historical and legislative text, intend to bring to light realities, which until then were hidden.

My other spiritual books, are of the same ilk, I bring to light biblical realities forgotten for centuries, but which are vital for the preparation of the faithful children of the Lord so that they are ready to go to meet our savior when he returns.

The purpose is also that while awaiting the return of the King of kings and the Lord of lords, that his people may be steadfast in Christ Jesus and not wavering, and not follow the dark lights of the fallacious doctrines that distill, like venom mortal, people who work, under cover of faith, for the devil.

To come back to my 4 books of the series “Inquisitiô (The three angels' message)” that I offer on my site, in English and French version, so that you have a better comfort of reading, I need your help, because the correction of each of these books costs approximately 7000 euros in English and approximately 3500 euros in French.

These 4 books once corrected, will always be offered free of charge, in English and in French, in digital version, on my site.

Apart from that, regarding the work of writing that the Lord gives me to carry out for him, it is important to note that it takes me a little over a year to finish a book in its English and French version. Apart from all this, it is fitting, in my opinion that you understand, that I cannot both write for the Lord and work as a consulting hairdresser, so, being totally devoted to the work of the Lord, I must also be able to live from this work, as the Holy Scriptures declare in the following text:

“Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?”

*If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. Mine answer to them that do examine me is this, Have we not power to eat and to drink?

Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also? For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? Or saith he it altogether for our sakes?

For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel”.
[1 Corinthians 9 verses 1-14, King James Bible].

With all that I have jt presented to you, you understand that I need your help in order to continue this work.

I have made many arrangements to obtain further financing, but since neither banks nor credit companies provide funding for book publishing it is proving to be a challenge.

With each new request rejected, I was like a man who, lost in the middle of the desert, runs after a mirage presenting him with a “saving” lake, but in vain. The repercussions are that, for lack of funds, the work is fallow.

Nevertheless, I am confident that, by the grace of God, to whom belong the silver and the gold, as well as this work he has entrusted me with, this book will find its audience, and that you, who will be led to read it, will not remain insensitive to my appeal for help.

It is true that many have come to live thinking that their temporal goods belong to them and do not care about the needs of the Lord's work. These I invite them to read the parables that we find in the following texts. Here is the first: “Then he told them, “Be careful to guard yourselves against every kind of greed, because a person’s life doesn’t consist of the amount of possessions he has.”

Then he told them a parable. He said, “The land of a certain rich man produced good crops. So he began to think to himself, ‘What should I do, since I have no place to store my crops?’ Then he said, ‘This is what I’ll do. I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and I’ll store all my grain and goods in them. Then I’ll say to myself, “You’ve stored up plenty of good things for many years.

Take it easy, eat, drink, and enjoy yourself.” But God told him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded back from you. Now who will get the things you’ve accumulated?’ That’s how it is with the person who stores up treasures for himself rather than with God.” [Luke 12 verses 15-21, International Standard Version Bible (ISV)].

Let's complete it with this: “There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table:

Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.» [Luke 16 verses 19-25, King James Bible].

The time is no longer to procrastinate, if this book has touched you, make a gesture, help me to be able to nourish souls, for and by the Lord. I have faith that the Lord has a faithful people, who are presented as the 7,000 who in the days of Elijah did not bend their knees before Baal and remained faithful to him.

I know that you will not turn your backs on this call for help, because you walk out of love as our Saviour asks of us.

Here is what is recommended: “Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away”. [Matthew 5 verse 42, King James Bible].

Let's complete it with this: “But whoever has the world's goods (adequate resources), and sees his brother in need, but has no compassion for him, how does the love of God live in him?

Little children (believers, dear ones), let us not love [merely in theory] with word or with tongue [giving lip service to compassion], but in action and in truth [in practice and in sincerity, because practical acts of love are more than words].

By this we will know [without any doubt] that we are of the truth, and will assure our heart and quiet our conscience before Him” [1 John 3 verses 17-19, Amplified Bible (AMP)].

Let's finish with this: “If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought;

And he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee. Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him:

Because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land”.
[Deuteronomy 15 verses 7-11, King James Bible].

If you have been touched by this book or any of the others that I offer for free on my website, please help me to continue to fortify and help the greatest number of people. I therefore appeal to your generosity. To do this, if your heart tells you, you can help me by sending me your donations by post to:

3 Presentation of the book entitled “Inquisitiô (The message of the three angels) volume IV. The situation regarding the attack of the false prophet and the apocalyptic bestial lamb against God’s law and prophecy”

By way of introduction, I would say that this book that you have in your hands presents the iniquitous works that the Seventh-day Adventist religion practices, as well as the plans that have been inspired to me by the Spirit of God in order to reform this religion.

This book is the last call to repentance that the Lord, in his great mercy, has given me to present to this religion, because of the acts practiced that do not revere him.

Now that these points have been made, and in order to get to the heart of the matter, I would say that in these lines I am exposing to you the works of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, which presents itself as the defender of the faith and the word of God, but which works like the very ones it condemns.

My words concerning the iniquity of the works of this religion might seem foolish, so much so does it give the world the image of a place where the word of God is honored and where no works of darkness remain, like “skeletons in closets”.

We will see that it is quite different.

I will show you, through the doctrinal precepts of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, highlighted by the Bible, how these foundations are iniquitous and do not serve God, on the contrary.

In order to present you with the main lines of the errors of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, we must begin with the foundations on which this Church was built, then developed to come to what is, in this decade, the basis of the dogma that this religion professes.

As a preamble, I would like to tell you that several decades ago the Lord raised up a “frail little plant”, which he established in his lifetime as a prophetess, her name was Ellen G. White.

The Spirit of God gave her the task of carrying the message of the three angels of Revelation, among others.

The main purpose of this three-pronged message is to lead us to give glory to the Lord! It also presents his judgment whose time has come, calls mankind to repentance and invites us all to reject all doctrine that is not of the Lord.

This message also presents the final fate that will be reserved for those who reject the Lord to serve the doctrines of men and finally, it aims to bring the Papacy and its henchmen to ruin.

The humble servant of the Lord, Ellen G. White, received from the Spirit of God new prophetic revelations, which present the hidden and iniquitous works of the Papacy, and which are brought to light by the message of the three angels of Revelation.

In doing so, she left precise instructions with her pen so that Seventh-day Adventists could never unite with that iniquitous being, the Papacy.

She also presents the influence that the popes have and will have on the nations, and the legislative bodies that manage the world, so Mrs. White during her lifetime urged the Seventh-day Adventist people to never enter into such unions.

In addition to these instructions and recommendations, she left a sword, flaming and powerful, to enable the world to know the true face of the papacy and the iniquitous doctrines professed by the Catholic Church, which is the book “The Great Controversy”.

Unfortunately, in this generation, with a wave of his hand, Adventist leader Ted N. C. Wilson has perverted all those foundations instituted by Mrs. White, upon which the Adventist faith is based.

This man has denied the foundations of the faith of his religion by disavowing the book "The Great Controversy" written by the pen of Ellen G. White.

He went so far as to ask Pope Francis for forgiveness because 700,000 of these books were distributed during one of the pontiff's visits to America. Ted N.C. Wilson also called for a union between Adventists and Catholics.

He also established agreements with the United Nations, something previously unimaginable.

All this may seem harmless, and even for some people it may indicate a great openness of mind, but when we lift the veil of appearances and look at the reality of life, we understand the nonsense of the new positioning of this religion.

To do this, I am going to ask you a question:

Can we profess at the same time a thing and its opposite. For example: can one declare oneself against abortion and be pro-abortion at the same time?

Or, can we at the same time fight against the laws that allow everyone in America to own a gun while we ourselves have a that we keep warm in a drawer?

Thus, the Seventh-day Adventist religion cannot on the one hand declare that its dogma is based on the writings of Ellen G. White and on the other hand, deny these teachings by practicing what it has proscribed.

Thus, either the Seventh-day Adventist Church emancipates itself from the rules of Ellen G. White, and practices new doctrines, or this religion remains in its old ways and practices what its late charismatic prophetess established.

For the moment, we are far from these two extremes, because this religion has come to practice mixed doctrines, which are a mixture of the teachings that Mrs. Ellen G. White left and those coming from the Catholic dogma.

A concrete example is the reality of the “remnant church”, this religion lived it in the time of Mrs. White who as a prophetess of the Lord had the gift of prophecy, which consists in the Lord speaking to one of his prophets or prophetesses in dreams or visions.

Mrs. White received many visions and some dreams through which she guided the Seventh-day Adventist people.

She also recognized that the Spirit of Prophecy consists of God speaking to His prophets in dreams and visions.

In contrast to all this, decades after Mrs. White's death, having no more prophets in its ranks the Seventh-day Adventist Church perverted these foundations.

In their place were instituted the iniquitous precepts of the Catholic Church which have been revised and watered down to the Seventh-day Adventist “sauce”.

Among these precepts we find the baptism of children or the desecration of dreams and visions.

We will also see how through these baptisteries, the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not worship God.

On the contrary, it hands over, bound hand and foot, those who are going to be baptized. Unbelievable! You will see to whom and how.

We will also see, while this religion claims to be the guardian of the Sabbath, how in the middle of the Sabbath, it transgresses the commandment of the Lord that “the left hand cannot know what the right hand is doing”.

I am also going to present to you the sectarian and outlaw works that the Seventh-day Adventist Church has put in place and which allows it, through psychological coercion, to rob its members of several million dollars a year and this for decades, through the tithes and offerings that it forces them to pay to it.

All that I have just stated, I will demonstrate to you through biblical, legal, legislative texts and doctrines established by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

I will go on to say that I had to cross the spiritual sword with this religion, but because of its financial power and its fame, I left more than “feathers” there.

My young wife, at the time, put me in a dilemma, stop writing against this religion, which was once ours, or divorce me.

I chose to remain faithful to the Lord. The repercussions were my divorce and the estrangement of my son, whom his mother took to live eight thousand miles away from me.

Nevertheless, having come of age, he has come back to me for about two years and we are getting to know each other again, but I have not yet seen him physically for more than 14, very long, years...

To finish, in order to be fair, I also present you with a summary of my life and you will see how the Lord has the ability to take a man out of total decay to make him one of his servants, the objective being that all glory should go to him alone, the Almighty!
